

“I love helping people. Becoming a CNA was a great start to learn how to take care of people.”

— Charmese Powell,
Tidewell Hospice CNA

Do you want a career in healthcare... But need help getting started? We'll pay for you to become a CNA!

A FREE six-week Certified Nursing Assistant training program is being offered by Tidewell Hospice, the American Red Cross and CareerEdge.

At the end of the training program, the new CNAs will have guaranteed employment at $12 to $13 per hour with Approved Home Health or Tidewell Hospice.

Here are the details for the training program:
